GENERATIONS PROJECT

Relational Ministry and Mentoring

Every generation has been shaped by different formative experiences: for the Silent generation—World War 2 and the Great Depression; for Generation X and onwards—the advent of the internet.

These formative experiences provide different lenses when viewing life and faith. The different tendencies of each generation sometimes leads to misunderstanding and conflict within our families, organisations and church.

Through this session we hope to foster greater understanding and empathy between generations at this unique point in history where at least five generations live and work together.

SPEAKER
Wei Hao
 Senior Ministry Associate, Graceworks

One of his current burdens is to help bridge the gap between the different generations in the church, for which he has co-authored the book The Generations Project: Bridging Generational Divides in the Singapore Church. Wei Hao is currently worshipping in Katong Presbyterian Church, he is married with a young daughter.

耶稣看见众人，就对他们动了怜悯之心，因为他们困苦流离，像羊没有牧人那样。
